OBJECTIVE

I am an enthusiastic, reliable, efficient, organized, fun professional, who is a team player, a problem solver, and takes direction well. I work well with people and have great interface skills with cast, crew and creatives. I have film, television and stage experience and completely understand the importance of performance, initiative, and completion of tasks, on time and on budget. I can offer to employers the application of skills needed to get the job done and then some. Great References.

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

- Strong background in stage production work, with experience in designing, producing, directing, casting, costume designing, choreographing and technical directing over thirty live stage shows/performances including eight full musicals with $50k + budgets each. Making the transition to film, I have established great references for my work in Production and in the A.D. Department.
- Excellent communication skills. Contributing author for Dancer Magazine U.S. National publication and Total Girl Magazine Australian National publication.
- Proven ability to accomplish all task meeting all deadlines and budgets with great organizational skills...In Theatre as sole producer and director of independent stage productions, and in Film in various production roles.
- Excellent networking abilities.
- Business management experience as co-owner of successful small business. Gained press coverage, implemented marketing strategy, increased business gross income and sold for 100% profit.
- Credited for, "In all my 30-plus years of being a part of and watching live dance productions, I have never seen a more professional stage production than Ms. Barnards. Her productions are as professionally run as any Broadway show. Kim is a well-organized, efficient self-starter who makes an outstanding employee in production work in both Film and live theatre".
Master tap dancer, former U.S. Olympic boxer/Hall of Famer, and film producer, Chuck Walker, Walker-Cable Productions.
- Recognized as one of the Top 30 Dance Teachers In the United States by Dance Spirit Magazine National Publication, being featured in DS article of Who's Who in the Industry 2001 and is a former National Champion Coach and Choreographer in the Athletic Industry...coaching a Nationally renowned All Star Cheerleading & Dance program over 700 students strong, earning more than 200 National Champion titles in the sport of All Star Cheer and the Art of Dance. Kim now has a seat on National Cheerleading judging panels and judges National USASF sanctioned Cheerleading & Dance events for various Companies throughout the United States and Internationally.
- As a Choreographer, I continue to choreograph All Star Cheer and Dance Nationally and Internationally as well as for stage and film.
